15 CENTS PER WEEK.

BRANDON & BARKSDALE, PROP'S.

One good thing can be said of Ici Noy. 14. cle John Sherman. He can't tell a lie; every time he tries it freezes on his lips, just as it did when he underwook to charge the money paule to Pleasant View at Malory's, (Friday), the Democratic landslide,

As soon as Congress meets for the 22nd and 23d. short session "Silver Dick" Bland will undoubtedly reintroduce the Democratic free coinage bill. The Republicans can take it or leave it, and 7th. as they like, but theo will have to take it finally.—St. Louis Republic.

Senator Harris and the Alliance,

Senator Harris is quoted in our Washington news, published Thursday, as saying in an interview th t the farm re' alli nee will cut no figure in the next residential cam page He says he does a t give to movement more than two years to Hve. Senator Harris is a very astute politician, a close obser or of political movements, but he seems to of which are arranged for the racers to go be considerably off or lost in the alliance fog.

Ou distinguished Senator di lo't to the right, think a year ago hat the alliane would amount to anything in Ten nessee, and had no doubt but hifavorite e ndidate, Col. Patterson, would have an easy walk over for the gubernatorial nomination. We told our friends of the Memphispress at the beginning, when they were claiming everything, trut "Hayseed" would have to be consuited in that matter and they r plied that such talk made them find But when the time came to choose a leader the boys quit the turrows an turned to hoeing in the political conventions, and no man, perhaps, was more surprised at the result than Senator Harris. The organization was then just beginning to take good root in the Western States, and has since spread to nearly every State in the Union, and the man who tails to observe in it a political revolution observe in it a political revolution tions of the fraternity, the jolly meetings don't understand the meaning or in the old half, the exclusive plants and force of a revolution Mark our prediction: This revolution is in its Intancy and will find no check short at nights with the unfortunate of the numof the attainment of its purpose. Labor, says the Dickson Home Enterprise, is indispensable to health. That may be true, but there are not many people who like the dose. We would rather go fishing any time, and we have seen people who would rather take a water-melou and wrestle, with a high protected "Ellibroy agne."

The Left Leg.

There is a popular idea that because the retical point of view it would appear that in all manual labor requiring increased use of the right hand, the left leg is also onployed on the principle of equilibrium.

In the case of the lower animals (except) ambulators, carnels, etc.), and babies, when walking on all fours, the right fore limb bus, O., have decided to extend a free moves with the left hind limb, and vice scholarship to one student from each versa. It follows from this that man, using the right arm more than the left, would probably use the left leg more than the right.

Many people find less exertion in walk-ing around large circles to the right than in circles to the right in running. Again, travelers have observed that hunters, when lost on prairies, wander around in circles for the slice of her affections alleged to lost on prairies, wander around in circles

This fact has been attributed to their following the course of the ann, but this does not appear to be necessarily the case. Many skaters can perform more figures on the left than on the right foot—or, at any rate,

College Societies.

Thousands of men and women in the United States recall their membership in the Greek letter fraternities as one of the most enjoyable and prolitable features of their college life. Long after the last traces of memory of the Greek conjugation have vanished, after the Odes of Hornce and the swinging lines of the Ænsid have faded into the irrevocable past; after all methematics but the rule of three has lapsed into the secret recesses of the mind; after the finer classifications of the "genus" and "species" have given place to such everyday terms as "mud cat" or "dog fennel;" after all these and a hundred other once important departments of learning have been forgotten, still the recollecparties; the dinners, cheap but seasoned with wit and warm geniality; the solemn the railroad office is located advice to the ctring brother, the sitting up Mrs. Alongo, Armstrone ber who fell sick, the anxiety to outdo all rival fraternities in securing good men who entered college, the throb of pride when one of "our boys" won a prize or some special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college honor—these things with a vicil and the special college. commencement day were only yesterday.

Finding a Snake on a Passenger Car.

A brakeman on a train running between had cost him $175 and thirty days in jail Essex and Avondale, on the Newark branch his saloon is declared a missure and motion among the passengers a few days ago. A baby had dropped her rattle and was stretching her chubby hands toward some object of greater interest on the floor of the car, and crowing delightedly. The mother, entrhing sight of the new plaything, shricked and several passengers jumped from their sents.
